

NOTES OF CLOSING

A Portion Shared

September 11, 2021

2:40 p.m.

Yahweh gives it:

...Let Me say how that person looks to Me. I see a suffocated person who gives a fake front that makes it look as if she has it all together. When you gave your counsel, she spat at it and said you were not in the will of Yahweh. How? With overstepping what you would say and telling you or the other involved that her way makes more sense. And when you pushed this parent's will, she spat on his authority and told that person to listen to her plan instead of the governing power over the person being counseled. What is this person's real problem? Trying to be heard just as well as you; pretending to be a thick-skinned person when she is filled with bitterness and wounded ways. With a great deal of folks trying to make her yield to their counsel, she is without a way to lead her own way. So, now she bows to Satan's plan and spits against various forms of governing authority, whether it's with her married way or through a world-level governing. She is not listening well and thinks that if she wants to be your equal in Kingdom work, she has to usurp. But you are a world-level governing way who has to submit to all local governing spheres pertaining to them letting you speak in their church way. But when it comes to giving world-level messages, no governing platform can make you have submission to their way, for Kingdom order leads in that way. Enter a local house; yield to how the house is governed except for when they blatantly yield to Satan. That person is in the wilderness but wants to be in the real world, working, but she is out of order, rebellious, stubborn, and filled with great self-pity and pride. A heavy way of people-pleasing. Just because you hear one message doesn't say that your way is ready.

I remove her from drinking from you, and I will let it become a real way that you are not going to yield to a child in spirit ways. She needs to either stay in her own home or get a divorce. Her method is like a child, still wanting to be under her mother. Do I care? When it comes to dealing with a world-level prophet who has trained as if you are in the days of prophets from old, I will harshly rebuke that way. Let's see when she becomes aware.

Now him.

What would make a preacher say to a person coming to hear them speak to not enter their church way because they are nervous? What would make a person turn another away due to their fear? What fear is within? The fear of not being able to stand with Yahweh as an equal. But servant, you are only a human, just a vessel yielded to Kingdom order. So, who was ultimately rejected? The Great Yahweh. I wanted to hear him speak and to give an impartation for worship ministry, yet he was too embarrassed to speak in your hearing. The presence of Yahweh is already strong on you. The people are already staying away from you. What will take way in this first major year of work? Great rejection while moving in great surging power. And your husband chooses to be with these cut-off ones as if there will be a way to have both—a world-level prophet wife and live amongst those Yahweh will not have you drink with. Tell Me, what must happen? You must go forward with the blessing of your Great God and tell them all what Yahweh commands.

I do not consent to that person being a pastor. I didn't give him an office position. He is attempting to operate in an office without the needed license and impartation from Yahweh. I take him from your mantle by association and will torment him for how he did not heed My will pertaining to having his relative sing on his worship album. I had you tell him no to having her on that plan, yet he did not heed it. He needs to understand that you are a woman of multiple races, and you will not yield to the wounded ways of the Black race. Be Yahweh's way and state that you are also of Asian descent even though your skin says two races. I will torment him for how he went his own way and will pull the music anointing from his spirit. When he has humility and seeks My forgiveness, then I will have you lay hands upon him and impart a taste from your mantle to bring him into Yahweh's will.

Only with the laying on of this prophet's hands will My surging flow. I am setting up a platform. Drink the way, and you will turn.

You see it? Now let Me say what you are dealing with.

I have been so hard with your training that you feel I will never let you really work out in the natural earth. If you were a church prophet, there would have been a much shorter learning period. There had to be a final shift where you took in what Yahweh had to train you pertaining. There had to be no fear of any, and you had to learn to depend on Yahweh for every morsel of food—natural and spiritual. I have been hard with training you because this is such great Kingdom power. Power to remake the human cannot be given out with a light attitude. I needed to see how you would still love Me even when no one else could stand with you. I needed you to feel how rejection feels like and deal with no longer being a part of other families. I know the pain is real. Rejection from any is real. I will let you see the spirit realm as if it is transposed over the natural, where both can be viewed as if natural ways are leading. See, you can do My great work. It's how you still are borrowing from your husband's wealth that bothers you. You would like to taunt some people and tell them that your way was not being led off-course and that there is nothing off about you. You've been called a cult leader, one who is misled, leading others astray. Are you wanting your God to stand up for you? I could not do that in your wilderness training. I had to let you deal with the hatred from that bitter removed city-level prophet, who spread great lies about you. She is already under torment. I will never let her have any peace for the decades of abuse you endured from her. Listen carefully. You are not a novice. Thirty years of training has been the way to make you ready to face the Religious spirit from the Church way. You aren't what they say, and you will age slower than your siblings. They will see Me keep you and strip away the aging way so you can minister to young and old. Servant, I swear a vow of honor as your Great God Yahweh that you are in the real work with real spiritual bullets and work assignments. You will enter a fifty-day spiritual stripping to bring you into the presentation plan so that the world can drink you without fleshly ways leading you. Take a look. The old way is fading. It is now here for your way to turn. I will not back off from pushing you. It's here, the real way. And you are going to begin to give out surgings even as I take you into the new work way....
