

WOMEN AS PROPHETS

An angel of the Lord addresses the servant—

Many will truly say you speak of details that would move to cause even greater details in straining the church way, how it moves this day.

Susanna says—

Would there be a way to bring the church way into a unity detail pleasing to the Great Way King Jesus? Will it be truly possible to move in true Kingdom authority that would shift the way the nations on the earth take care of earthly details? People truly must see that there is a moving to bring the Church Body as one, to move in being ready for the return of King Jesus. How can one part of the Body embrace one detail that would, in another, cause a major split in the people in that detail? What is the true way the Church should move as?

There are many church details not approved by the Great Way King Jesus. For example, where does it truly say a woman cannot lead a male in church details? Since most would move in quoting Paul's statement, we will move to address that very detail. Women have been in a place of lower rank due to the way the Church views the order in a family. Women have been given a role to work with their mate, not to submit as a servant would under a ruler. I have had a plan that has been given to speak in dealing with this very detail. And now it is time for the plan to be initiated into the earth.

Women have been on the earth for a great deal in time frame, yet there still is a stigma to place a female in any detail where she leads due to fear of that woman moving in a poor order not pleasing to the Great Way King Jesus. How is your view of the Great Jehovah? How is your view of the Great Way King Jesus? How is your view of the Great Holy Spirit? Have you seen a plan where One is treated in a lower way than the Other? But They are all God and have an equal way in being

God; yet when a plan is done, there is submission in what does happen, moving to work together to bring in a purpose and having the King's will move in the earth in a pleasing detail.

Here is where most will have a major issue with what shall be given: The Great Father Jehovah is supreme in full details, yet He gave His full authority to use His Son to rule over all details, where, in His name, things can be moved on. Most would say King Jesus is moving out of His proper order due to being the One to go to, but it is the plan given, so there will be full healing, where a human shall be able to drink details through the Great Holy Spirit in a true detail in spirit and in truth. What is truly being revealed here? Isn't it God's plan to use the human race for His purpose, as both Adam and Eve were to move to govern? What was in the will with the nation of God's chosen people? Were they not all kings and priests in their plan with the Creator of all spirits? Was there a break in true details when God's appointment through Deborah was used in ruling a nation? "A plan that was moving in false details," most would say, but you must look at the way given in that order, for God chose a willing vessel, to put His nation in a right plan to hear His will and for her to steer the nation with a firm will.

What is taking way in the church way this day? People have moved in putting women into a position where they have no authority and, in this way, have moved to cripple a vessel that the Great King may use for His service. Take a look at where all human life stems from in the originating detail. Truly, the human has been given life through the One True God. That plan is only through the Great I AM, where He gives life to each human, and He gives spirit to the fleshly body so one can move to even live on the earth. There is no way to split and say that only males came from God while females came from only Adam, when all have life in spirit from the Great Jehovah in all time, from eternity even into the new way.

People must truly take a drink at the great will, for God will pour out His Spirit upon all flesh. "All" in Scripture is not a plan where "all" has a male gender attached to its meaning. God looks to see if one is truly His in their way in which they move as a new creation in Christ the Great Way King Jesus. God's Spirit looks to commune with your spirit. This is possible as one is reborn into a new plan where they move in being a true Kingdom citizen, which will include all genders, race, and color details, in separation in church movings.

I have seen with my own plan to visit church details, where they would move to split up their people based on their ages. There are even cliques in church details, where they will sit in sections or claim a seat due to being in that building for a great deal in time. I have seen where only a race would be in worship and would make it as a special club, where only they would move to include that certain race to attend in that detail. They look at your shade of Black or see if you have even skin tone to move in placing you in that church way. Some would look to see if you have a suit or if you move to be a street way to fit in with their church culture. You would even go to some church buildings, where they would be confused as a nightclub due to wanting to attract a certain crowd who would be interested. You could go and deal with movings in the politics in the church way to gauge a level of sin as okay while others will not be. They have made a way to move in placing what they feel is best for the people instead of giving its will to the Great King. This is referring to church dynamics.

I have been to major buildings that have a way to make the people feel good yet bring no true will in how to live a true detail in the earth against the devil's movings. People would rather come and take in a shot of church way for a quick fill to think that that is how you live a Christian way, yet they truly will not know how to hear the Way, the Truth, and the Life speak in the week as a whole. The message in the church way has been twisted to make it seem as if going to King Jesus takes away all pain as if there will no longer be any details that could hurt you. People have been tricked into giving their money to get a wish in the church detail. They have lost hope and have looked to church leaders as a lowercase god, to then give based on what they would receive. Churches would even dare make promises to give back a tithe in a certain amount of time if God doesn't back up His Word and do what He said in Scripture in the way of giving into His will.

What is going on in these church ways to move in looking at each detail as a way to make the gathering a social moving, to focus on what you will do once the service is done? How has the church way shifted to want to be like your neighbor? What would make your neighbor have a will to taste what they have been drinking for so long? Shouldn't there be a distinct look in the Church, to give the nation a look to see there is a God who is real? Why is there no true power in the Church global-wise? How has the devil moved in placing up his churches to take on a will to move as some Christian churches, where for a non-church goer, they would not be able to tell which one is truly good to go to? People will say, "It's where the Word of God is being preached to look for," yet there are many new versions of Scripture that have moved in changing God's will in meaning, to reflect the culture of that will in that church body.

People have removed the Great Way's Spirit and will not have Him speak His will in any detail. And that has caused a major hurt in the way most churches move in the detail to truly make a major impact that is Kingdom-based. The world will say you have made a major impact if you have a great building and lots of people, but they cannot truly think to see how many in that building truly know the Great Way in their spirit, where they have made King Jesus their Savior. Look and take a drink to truly see how not having true prophets in church details have moved to cripple the Body in Christ the Great Way King Jesus.

Now, let's move in bringing up a major detail in debate in the church way. "Why would God have women as preachers? And some would say that God would even place females to serve as His prophets. Why would God make it so?" God would move to speak His will through a donkey to cause a false prophet to be used by God to speak a true will concerning the nation of Israel. God would use a raven to give a daily ration of food, to feed His prophet in a major will to sustain him. God would move in using quail for food, to give to the nation of Israel in the desert. God will use His angels to be His servants, to work with humans to bring His will in a way to be seen in the earth. God will use the weather to make a servant, who moves to rebel, turn to go and do the King's will in giving a message to warn a city of the judgment if they will not turn to serve the Way, the Truth, the Moving, who gives life. You would say that God can use His animals, His angels, His male people, yet He would choose to exclude His women formed from the earth in human procreation that still stems from the Creator Himself? Now, can God love a portion of Himself yet choose not to honor the other who was also made in His image? For both the male and the female were created in the image of the One True God.

Now we must still address Paul's detail. In that current culture, there were certain details that were in place to keep a certain order in the church due to various issues that would come to the surface. Issues were always with the new church gatherings that needed to be dealt with. Just as all church bodies will not be a true example of the Church in Scripture, one must come and look at the body in which Paul dealt with in that situation.

There is moving, a will, to keep a certain way of religion in the Church, to keep a blockage of true freedom in the Great Holy Spirit. "Religion" is that detail that King Jesus dealt with in His earthly ministry. Most looked at the Law and wouldn't embrace King Jesus due to the way He moved in doing the plan as given by God the Father, with the full backing of His great power. Even with great power, the people still moved in doing their ritual in hopes to meet with the One True God known as Yahweh.

God has a way to move in backing up His plan for each new movement, to show His will for each detail. It would be a wise plan for even seasoned prophets to feel the spirit moving in each detail due to the Great Way revealing a will in others, and not so you would move to know it first. This means God may give a new plan and not move to give that will for you to know of first. You may truly be a servant, yet there may be a detail He may choose not to give in your secret meetings with Him. That is truly where many have been confused or would move to say that God didn't give a new will. Even when the Church was in its early stages, the religious way in that time moved against the new way given to move in, trying to bring it to a will to submit to their way. But it truly could not be taken over by the former way.

So it is for this day. What if the Great Way chooses to use a detail you may not be familiar with? Wouldn't it be a good plan to move to seek His will in each detail? But wouldn't a true servant to Jesus have a way to gauge the will as they move to drink from the Great King? Here is where a big problem may come to a seasoned servant: God may not show you the full plan, and here is where you must seek Him on each detail and not go with what you think might be good. Let's say you are a prophet to the nations of many different realms and regions: Would there be any detail not embraced by your spirit? Yes, for God has details that can only be revealed at certain times, and at the will He would bring, He may reveal His will in one servant, yet wait to show a portion of that same will to a different servant. This is where the true servant must yield in his or her prophet's spirit to move to embrace a will that is given to move in through seeking God's will.

So, how should a servant move, in details where it may not seem as if the Great Way has willed it? Wouldn't it be a good plan to have a secret meeting with the Great King? Wouldn't it be better to bring a detail to the Great Holy Spirit, to move to seek His will in each detail before moving to seek a person who may not know the true detail? If the Great Way sends you to a human, then go to the human. But if you move in doing your own way, your judgment could be tainted due to what relationship you have with that person.

Here is a critical detail young servants must truly be aware of: It is very important to submit to the will in the Great King in who He chooses to give you in a mentor detail. Your will should not lead in your training. You should move in full submission to what the Great King will give you. He may place you in a church detail where the main leader hates the prophetic in his church. That would be a very difficult place to learn the way to move in your duties, yet you must truly see that the Great Way moves in giving you lessons that will shape the servant He wills for you to move in being in His service.

Serve the Great Way in the good details and in the bad details. Serve the Great King in what will He gives. Remove your will and do what He wants. Yield in full details, and that will make it where you can move in a full way in delegated authority. Learn to speak a message that will bring a King's will. This means: Learn to keep your personal opinion and plans to yourself, and only speak what the Great King gives you to speak. Discipline yourself to be with Him in a way to maintain a true relationship, not of a way to get a gift or a title. Learn to move with Him as He shifts a will in what He would bring you. Learn to drink His correction. Learn that plan that would bring true details of the purpose of the Great King into each detail.

Prophets must truly learn that they will not be given a level of authority with their own agenda in place. It would be very dangerous for the Great Way to give a novice power and authority, with His special movings to do His will, just so you can feel important. No servant is ever greater than his or her Master. No true prophet is ever ready until they have been chiseled and refined by God for the calling. No prophet of God can have a way to serve without a release by the Great King Jesus, with a spiritual license that will give them details to do the work. No prophet should move out in any sphere to work in without first being commissioned for the King's service. No prophet should move on those gifts they hold—to say they can deal with certain demons over certain nations or land or people. There must be a true way to be able to invoke the God who is with the servant, to make what is given come and manifest into the sphere that the servant works in.

Prophets have to truly consider their work sphere. There is no plan given for a church prophet to move in dealing with work over a nation. That will not happen due to the Great King not giving that servant that level of authority to deal with that work. There are levels of authority you will deal with even in Satan's kingdom, and a wise servant would seek the Great King to know if they have been given that level in their mantle to deal with major demons over nations.

Now, let's speak of intercessors, where they would move in dealing with demons over nations: There is great confusion concerning what a plan should be in dealing with strongholds over nations. There are many that will take up a position in this detail based on there not being any other to lead this ministry. It is more than a way of doing a church chore, as some would view it. What is truly needed? It would be wise to learn of those things you can handle based on the authority placed within you, delegated through the Great Way.

People have told so many in the Church that Satan will not have a way to move against them if they serve the Great Way King Jesus but look at what is taking shape in these days, where many are serving Satan, even in the churches. People will be in a way to welcome that plan the demon would bring in their detail due to wanting to cater to the nation at the expense of a few souls.

Demons have been given authority in the churches at the expense of a soul harvest due to the plan to move as the world, to avoid persecution. Who can see it that as you give the demon a place in your dwelling, he would have a legal way to control you in that will? This is not dealing with being demon-possessed in your body. This is dealing with giving a demon a way to get you to move in submitting to what they would move in dealing with in Satan's power.

There are major territories given over to Satan due to allowing his will in the way they serve the Great Way. For example, the God known as the Great I AM has spoken against any plan to use witchcraft, as it is a major sin in His sight, yet you still move in having a fortune teller game in your church party, to be a fun thing for the people to enjoy. You would say within that there is truly nothing wrong with this detail. "It is just for fun," you would say. But that plan opened a doorway for demons to move into your territory to use it for Satan's will, even though it's a church building. This may show a few people that they may need to spiritually clean their church buildings to remove details used to give a demon a way to come into that church way.

What of those who pray whatever a person tells them to pray? For example, the leader or host may say that "so and so is sick, and let's pray to give them full healing." Most would say they would pray for God to heal, in that detail, but what if God was bringing the sickness? How would you move in praying for that person? Would you pray what is expected, or would you first seek to know the root of that person being sick in the first place? Yes, God will send a sickness to get a person's attention. God will also send a demon, as in the case of Israel's King Saul. God will also send a death sentence, as with the great king Hezekiah. God may also send a judgment, as with Sodom and Gomorrah. God has to be rightly placed in His full nature. The plan has been in the churches to label all sickness and disease as from the devil. What if you take communion while living in sinful ways? You could cause your own sickness, or death itself, for moving in that plan. Look it up in Scripture, and truly drink a way to move in dealing with these details.

Since most would pray what they want, there is a true need for a true servant who will not move in giving a will that would not be a true detail. This is gauging a spiritual detail within a person. Most move in praying to have a certain will due to a filter of pain and heartache. But there must be a certain way in place where one can move to seek the will in God's plan with a clearer vision without woundedness and personal issues. The prophet has to willingly embrace God's full will in a situation, whether dealing with themselves or with a person in need of spiritual insight.

What would make it so the Church shall move to drink a spiritual streaming, in planning with God? Having the office of prophet fully engaged in their church way will open a door for a detail in drinking a stream in provision that would move in natural, spiritual, world-sphere details, as the Great Way would lead. Having the door closed to prophetic details has made it so the Church moves with a blindfold, feeling the air for what to do in their own way. They hold hands with other blind ones and walk a certain way, saying they are truly free. Great deception, as they move in being led by any voice that gives a will that may seem good.

Give a place for the Great Way to speak in His Church Body and move into a governing will that stems from the King's will. With His way in governing each church detail, there will be a way to bring the King's prayer into the earth, where His people move as one in the earth, to move in doing the plan to give the Great Way a place of full honor, and to move in a great way in winning a great soul harvest. How much is left in that plan? A great deal must be moved on to bring church bodies in local gatherings into a unity detail.

There must truly be a deep repentance that shall bring a major awakening in what the people are able to truly see in their spirits. How can your idols give a plan to lead a church detail? There has to be a removal of the world's gods, and a deep detail in cleaning must be moved on. There must be a removal of those churches that are in rebellion against the Great Way King Jesus, where they say He is not the One True Healer of body, soul, and spirit. What this means is that all church gatherings that would move to say that King Jesus is not the only Way to Heaven must be first dealt with and removed if they choose to serve Satan, still, after the warning is given.

The will is to bring a deep cleansing to the leaders in these church details who would not move in giving the people God's will as leaders. There must be a true serving within these leaders, where they have truly been made a new creation. There must be a removal of Satan's workers from the pulpit in God's house. There must be a true detail in dealing with the false prophets that turn the people to move in tasting details against the Great King. There must be true worship that shall be pleasing to the Great Way. Music has to go back into being a tool to move in true communing with God. People must look at the will of King Jesus for their own building—not gauge what the will is through a TV program. Details such as these will only be able to be seen with a truly big God moving to put a plan in the earth, to embrace it. This means that even for a major plan to move to be dealt with, it would take a Great God to move, to make it so the church way will see it truly is the will He would bring.

And so, the nations will turn to drink the churches given the Great King's approval, with authority to do His Kingdom work. You will move to embrace it as you look to move from natural drinking to a spiritual will in the Great King's planning details. It is time for the true Church to move into doing the Great King's will in moving in a given authority that would shift the earthly details, to reflect a Kingdom plan that is eternal; for what has been planted will be a seed for an eternal way. It's just as in any detail. What you sow shall have a way to be reaped, and you will reap what you sow; so, move in Kingdom work so you will see the fruit in eternity with the Great Way King Jesus. Amen. Amen. Amen.
